REALIZE END

Hella Everyone.
Thank you far buying this daujinshi m(_ _)m
It's an extra to the "Calling" series running in Reijin magazine.
The Calling volume isn't aut yet, so I'm kinda jumping the gun by drawing a doujinshi for it already, but what can I da ? I really wanted to draw it!

The actual series continues in Reijin March, May, and November editians 2008. There are also other comic volumes of mine that will be released shortly. If yau see them an sale near you, please, check them aut.

After this, the Calling story is going to centre on Asaoka. Please look farward ta reading about haw it works aut between him and the examiner, Tokono-san! It's quite rare for me to draw manga with this kind of setting, but I'm planning to continue the series with Reijin for a while longer.

Well, then, I hope to see you all again at winter comiket!
